

Clubs and Organizations 2022

USF Improvidence:

President Drew Veurink. Advisor Joe Obermueller.

Improv isn't just for theater majors! We encourage anyone to join us weekly and invite all to laugh with us at our shows.

Purple Plate:

President Mellissa Kroeker/Rachel Freiz. Advisor Victor Larsen.

The objectives of Purple Plate – to learn how to cook affordable healthy meals, learn about cultural foods, learn about food safety, and eat delicious flavorful food.

Hacky Sack Club:

President Maria Streed. Advisor Jagger Gran.

Hacky Sack club is organized to spread the art of hacky sacking and provide Christian community while having fun.

USF Student Democrats:

President Rachel Boyer Advisor Ceca Cooper.

USF Student Democrats meets 3 or 4 times a year, often with a speaker. The group discusses the importance of getting involved in all levels of politics- local, state and national, and promotes voter registration to everyone.

ASCD:

Leader(s)/Faculty Advisors Lisa Riddle and Michelle Hanson.

Our Mission: ASCD is a membership organization that develops programs, products, and services essential to the way educators learn, teach, and lead. Our Vision: ASCD is the worldwide leader in learning, teaching, and educational leadership.

USF College Republicans:

President Vanessa Tschetter. Advisor Steve Horan.

USF College Republican Club's mission is to give a voice to the conservative students on campus. We want to give students a place to feel comfortable to share their beliefs. And to learn how to defend themselves in our world holding these values. The USF Republican Club strives to educate, empower, and mobilize students creating future leaders of America

Coo Tycoons Investment Club:

President Kyla Perkins. Advisor Steve Horan.

The Coo Tycoons Investment Club actively manages an investment portfolio worth over $400,000. Students make the decisions in managing the portfolio and choose investment strategies. Financial experts from the community visit the club and help students understand investments and how to make sound financial decisions. The primary objective of the club is to provide sufficient funds to fund scholarships and provides funds to support student missions' trips

Cougar Pep Band Club:

President Megan Eickmeyer. Advisor Jonathan Neiderhiser.

Cougar Band Club's mission is to bring excitement and school spirit to USF sporting events by sharing our musical talents and providing entertainment for all.

FORGE:

President Hannah Amelia Hanson. Advisor Brooke Murphy.

Lost and found equips college students with strategies for lifelong resilience through student-led campus chapters, connected to a team of campus and community advisor and dedicated staff. We envision a world in which no young adult considers or completes suicide, and tools and community for developing lifelong resilience are easily accessible to any person.

605-Longboarding:

President(s) Riley Robinson and Matthew Sterud. Advisor: Dick Bartling

605-Longboarding promotes a healthy lifestyle and living, it expands your social circle and is good for stress management and relief. It allows you to find a new alternative hobby, explore Sioux Falls in a new and unconventional way, and being involved allows for opportunities in leadership roles. 605-Longboarding has loaner boards for those that do not have their own and there is a new rider policy set place if boards are limited, they have an opportunity to ride still. The process is easy: come to a meeting, borrow a loaner board, come back if you enjoyed!

Culture Club:

President: Sonia Agasaro Advisor: Sarah Sinnott

Our goal and mission is to create a very safe space inclusive of everyone that is willing to learn and discuss issues that are usually never approached in various cultures.

Self-Advocating Student Society:

President: Rachel Friez. Advisor: Nicole Dulaney

Our mission is to promote education and awareness regarding many different types of disabilities. Our goal is to create a safe environment where we can learn from others about their own experiences. Ultimately, we aim for this club to be a place where both able-bodied and disabled people can learn from one another.

Chutes and Ladders:

President(s): Cale Engelkes and Kyle Taylor Advisor:

STAB (Student Theater Advisory Board):

President: Devin Wolthuizen. Advisor: Joe Obermueller

Student Theatre Advisory Board exists to serve the students of USF who are involved/interested in Theatre. Our members are a consistent resource for students and faculty alike who seek more information about the department, or would like to share ideas for programming.

Coo-Cinema:

President: Apolonia Davalos. Advisor: Nancy Sutton and Nick Poppens

Our mission is to create original compelling films that reflect upon the core of the human spirit and humankind's quest for purpose as a creation created in God's image. To produce and establish opportunities for continued growth and development as creative artists in challenging and collaborative productions.

Refuge:

President: Kayla Schleppenbach Advisor: Dennis Thum

The goal and mission of this club is to get a group of people together to discuss LGBTQA matters and to support one another. This club is to learn about the LGBTQ community. This group is open to ALL, faculty, staff and students. We will be doing a letter a month to help break down the understanding of it and to make it less scary for those who are new to it. We want to create a calm safe space to support each other and learn from each other. A place to find and make friends.

Pre-Professionals Club:

President(s) Cassidy Nelson/Skylar McCaulley. Advisor Bill Soeffing

The mission of the Pre-Professional Health organization is to aid students through a faith-based platform who are seeking to ascertain a career as a healthcare professional. This organization will provide these students with valuable insight on both career options and graduate school admissions through a variety of facets that are difficult to access individually. Through this organization students will hopefully develop in their sense of empathy, responsibility, leadership, altruism, and other significant characteristics of healthcare professionals.

FCA:

President(s) Jacob Johnson/Cassie Houseman. Advisor

The Fellowship of Christian Athletes challenges coaches and athletes on the professional, college, high school, junior high and youth levels to use the powerful medium of athletics to impact the world for Jesus Christ. FCA is the largest Christian sports organization in America.